

A National Curriculum Subject

Is the subject adequately represented on the timetable, i.e. do all pupils receive sufficient teaching of it?

Are the staff who teach the subject appropriately experienced and trained? Is support available?

Are sufficient resources and equipment available to teach the subject?

Is the accommodation available for teaching the subject adequate?

Do the pupils enjoy the subject? In the opinion of the teacher, are they producing good work?

Are the subject's results improving?

Are there any outstanding issues with regard to the subject that staff would like the governors to be aware of?